Australian Democracy Scavenger Hunt

1. What is the Charter of Liberties?
2. Who or what is Magna Carter?
3. What system of government did we copy for our own government?
4. When was the federal parliament house opened and by who?
5. Why was the opening date significant?
6. What are the two houses of federal parliament called?
7. What is the difference visually of the two houses?
8. How many federal members of each house are there?
9. What are the two houses of state parliament called?
10. What is the difference visually between the two houses?
11. What is an electorate?
12. What electorate does Eastwood belong in?
13. Who is our elected member of federal parliament?
14. Who is our elected member of state parliament?
15. What title do elected members of parliament use?
16. Who can vote in state and federal elections?
17. When were women allowed to vote?
18. What was the name of the group of women who fought for equal rights, in particular, being able to vote in federal elections?
19. When were aboriginal people allowed to vote?
20. In the 1960s, a group of Aborigines fought for equal rights. What significant event in New South Wales did they organise to help change the way white Australians viewed Aborigines?